CORAM : V.C.DAGA & S.C.DHARMADHIKARI,JJ.

DATED : 28.2..2006.

P.C. :

. Heard.

. So far as direction to pay interest @ 6% p.a. in the operative part of the order is concerned, the same was granted in exercise of writ jurisdiction of this Court for delayed payment, with a view to compensate the recipient of the amount. Though the words "retiral dues" are used in para 6 of the order, intention of the Court was to award interest on entire amount which had become due and payable to the petitioner which no doubt included an amount payable on account of Family Relief Fund.

. In the above view of the clarification, we, now, permit the respondents to pay the balance amount of interest due and payable to the petitioner within 4 weeks from today. Needless to mention that since interest was awarded in exercise of writ jurisdiction, this order would hardly operate as precedent for other matters.

. The motion stands disposed of in terms of this order with no order as to costs.
